(A) Vision of the Institution is:-

Empowerment is the key to success and happiness. No other thing empowers a person as Education and knowledge does.

Vision of this institute is to provide education to each and every girl of rural and semi rural area.

Since the inception of this institute till today, majority of the students come from rural area. Girls from 159 villages and 52 from semi rural area come to study here. We plan various activities for their Education & Empowerment.

URMI - Collegiate Women Development Cell makes several efforts for shikshan (Education), Seva (Service), Swasthya (Health), Suraksha (Safety), Swarojgari (Self Employment).

(1) Shikshan[Education]: Efforts are been made to not only provide Education but to teach self skills, life skills through various short term courses, create awareness of various social, economic & environmental & gender issues. We had invited two motivational speakers shree Jay Vasavada and Sheetal Panchal. CWDC teaches life skills as Decision making, endurance, tolerance, patience, selfless services etc. Apart from this, students were taken to provide institutions to meet Experts of their subjects.

(2) Swasthya[Health]:Thallemia awareness lectures were done and hemoglobin test was done by Indian Red Cross Society for 257 first year students. Parents of Minor Thallemia students were counselled.

- Eye checkup was done in campus by Aashirvad Foundation
- HIV – AIDS awareness campaign was undertaken in campus and surrounding area
- Cervical cancer & breast cancer awareness lectures were organised
- Psychological counselling of 82 girls (230 sitting) was done by psychologist Dr. Preeti Tiwari

- Demonstration of Nutritious food was done on every Wednesday

- (3) Suraksha[Safety]: We had organized lecture series of Shri O.P. Sharma on Sexual harassment at work place. We also invited retired Judge shri B.N. Vyas to talk to students about domestic violence. We made students download Abhyam Application on their Mobile Phone, and we educated each and every student about 3R's (Recognize, Resist and Report) of sexual abuse.
- (4) Sewa[Service]: Lots of work was done under this initiative. Each students has been participating in it. Several work such as teaching children of slum Area, doing regular voluntary work at old age home and deaf & dumb school & distributing 2600 items to school students of tribal villages.
- (5) Swarojgari[Self Employment]: Women Empowerment Programme were arranged all throughout in which students were given training for self empowerment. They were even send for various seminars.
