

Verbs and Idioms

1. To give up:- to abandon
 - Never give up faith in the face of adversity.
2. To go in to action:- to start work
 - When exam come student go in to action.
3. To keep well:- to be in good health
 - You must exercise regularly to keep well.

4. To go well:- to match appropriately

- This earring goes well with your dress.

5. To wake up:- to realize

- We should all wake up to the fact the global warming is a real threat to our existence.

6. To look into:- to examine

- The police is looking into the case and will soon catch the criminal.

7. To stands by:- to support

- we must stand by our friends.

8. To bring to light:- to disclose , to reveal

- Her affair was brought to light by her friends.

9. At the spur of the moment:- suddenly

- The police has to find solution at the spur of the moment.

10. To drop in:-to pay casual visit

- Rita dropped in to meet Sita.

11. Ups and downs:- alternation of good and bad fortune.

- Life is full of ups and downs.

12. Out of question:- impossible

- Without hardwork good result in exam is out of question.

13. Off and on:- now and again, frequently

- The child falls sick off and on.

14. In full swing:- in fully active operation

- The factory is working in the full swing.

15. Up to the mark:- of a certain level

- The assignment is not up to the mark.

16. To make a mark:- to do something not noteworthy

- We must work hard to make a mark in the society.

17. To pass away:- to die

- Her grandfather passed away last week.

18. To bring up:- to rear

- Rasik was brought up by his uncle.

19. To carry on:- to continue, to manage

- They have carried on the work done by their father.

20. To cast off:- to discard

- We must cast off the evil of dowry.

21. To fall in love with:- to be enamoured of

- Rekha has fallen in love with Dimple.

22. To get through:- to pass

- If we work hard, we might get through difficult exams.

23. To pass through:- to undergo , to experience.

- My mother has passed through difficulties to provide my education.

24. To turn a deaf ear to:- to refuse to listen

- Students turn a deaf ears to what the teacher says.

Presented By:
Prof. Gargi Gohil

