Summary of the Activity

The workshop on 'Career in Teaching in Higher Education' was organized on 1-7-2015 to 30-9-2015 at our college campus. In the inaugural function the principal, the faculties and the students were present. The speaker discussed about importance and career in teaching and education. He explained that it is very difficult to deal with different types of children or students. To teach the youth of tomorrow is an absolute nightmare.

In the next session he explained the reality about teaching and education. The knowledge of career options are helpful for them to learn, develop and acquire information and skills. Truthfully an educator's job is very challenging.

The speaker spoke about the career options in teaching and education. He particularly focused on higher education. His speech focused on education where the lectures and tutors tend to be experts in a very specific subject. In order to keep the education system effective, they need valuable support from teaching assistants and administrative staff. He concluded by saying that career in the teaching and education sectors are immensely varied stimulating and challenging.
