Summary of the Activity

The seminar was organized on 'Resolving Social Problems through Govt. and its agencies' on 20th January to 8th February, 2020. In the inaugural function, the president Shri Babubhai J. Patel of K.V.C. Education Trust, the General Secretary Shree Chandubhai Patel, the principal, the faculty members and the students were present.

In the first session, the speaker gave a brief discussion about the social problems arising in our society. He gave the solutions of the social problems and discussed about poverty and unemployment. He further explained that by providing education, skill training and job opportunities in a society one can eradicate poverty. The root cause of social problem is unemployment. Unemployment can be eradicated by providing job oriented education, training them by Govt. to solve the problem of unemployment.

In the last session, the expert discussed steps for an effective problem solving process. He emphasized to identify the issues, list the possible solutions, evaluate it and understand everyone's interest. He also pointed out some examples of social problems which include homelessness, bullying, hunger, unemployment, gender discrimination.

The seminar was attended by 72 students. The highlights of the seminar was the speaker who shared his knowledge and experience.
