Summary of the Activity

The seminar was organized on 5th October, 2019 on 'Family Conflicts, Counseling, Care And Correction'. In the inaugural Function, the President of KVC Education Trust, the principal, the honorable Speakers, the faculty members and the students were present.

In the first session the speaker discussed the causes of family conflict. He said that as elderly parents begin to rely on family for more support, the amount of conflict between adult children increases. Dealing with a parents' care can rekindle sibling rivalries that have lain dormant for years and the discord can tear families apart. The speaker also discussed the causes of family conflicts which includes injustice and inheritance.

In the next session, the speaker tried to discuss the tips for improving communication during a family misunderstanding. He also said sometimes a natural third party can calm feuding siblings.

Family Conflicts include fighting between husbands and wives, sibling rivalry and parent child power struggles.

The speaker discussed how to resolve such conflicts and go to the counselor if need arises. Further he described the strategies which include avoiding, defeating, Compromising, accommodating and collaborating.

The Seminar concluded with an interactive session. The students were very happy to be a part of this seminar as they were enlightened and gained knowledge.
